

Langhorne Council In Routine Session Hears Numerous Reports

Discusses Curbing, Prowlers, Street Lights and Parking Area

By Staff Reporter

LANGHORNE, Oct. 10 — Curbing presently being installed in the borough was the main topic of discussion at the meeting of Langhorne borough council last night at town hall.

Council heard a report by Chief-of-Police William E. Arnwine of prowlers in the area. Arnwine was authorized to secure two men for deputization for Oct. 29 through Oct. 31 to prevent Halloween vandalism. Two potentially dangerous trees will be removed; street light poles will be painted; borough property to the rear of the post office will be filled in to correct a swampy situation, and provide a parking space at the rear of the post office; and the secretary was requested to advertise for bids for a new traffic light at Pine st. and Maple ave.

Complaints have been received from several residents along streets which are presently being curbed. The complaints stem from the fact that sidewalks on opposite sides of the street are at different levels. When placing the curbing according to present street grades, curbs in some sections are higher than the sidewalks. Residents whose properties front on such sections of street are questioning what the borough intends to do about the "high" curbs.

Councilman Robert May explained that the situation in the sections complained about was the result of surfacing roads with so many layers of black-top that the crown of the road was above the sidewalk line. He explained that grades submitted on maps did not indicate that the curbs would adversely affect some peoples property. He said that the situation similar to that which has arisen in other localities stemmed from the present grade of existing roads and that in the future perhaps the best thing to do would be to rip old streets right out and put new ones in, with proper grades, before curbing was constructed.

The matter was turned over to the street committee for study.

Chief Arnwine reported that during

Lr. Bucks Hospital Will Ask for 150-Bed Unit

Ground-Breaking is Set For Nov. 2nd; Estimated Cost is $3,073,912

The board of directors of the Lower Bucks County Hospital meeting in the Municipal Building last night by a vote of 17-1 agreed to petition for construction of a 150-bed unit, according to Warren Jennings, publicity director of the hospital. Jennings gave the estimated cost of the unit as $3,073,912.

Ground-breaking for the hospital was set as Sunday, Nov. 2, 1952, by the directors, Jennings stated. The hospital will be located at the south west corner of Bath rd. and route 13, overlooking Silver Lake.

According to Jennings the directors are awaiting a letter of confirmation of the hospital's eligibility under the Hill-Burton Act before contracts are awarded. Certification was given Wednesday by the Department of Welfare for funds for the hospital under the act. These funds will pay 40% of the total cost of construction. One of the requirements of eligibility for the funds is that 60% of the total cost be raised locally.

Jennings explained that the cost of a 100-bed unit would have been $2,338,536, and for the difference in money that was involved the directors decided they would push for the 150-bed unit.

Contracts must be awarded by October 26th, Jennings explained. He added that a clerk for the hospital must be hired before that date and the board was desirous of securing a local person for the job.

Jennings said that consideration was being given to a new fund drive to raise the additional money necessary but that such drive was not expected to get under way until after the first of the year.

Editorial

DONKEY IN DISTRESS

It is a terrible thing to be in a sinking ship—or for that matter, to be in a ship you think is sinking, whether it is actually in danger or not.

As the campaign moves into its final stages, nothing is clearer than that a sort of hysteria has gripped the Democratic leadership.

The picture is vastly different from what it was four years ago. Then the Democrats had largely reconciled themselves to the thought of defeat. They were perfectly content to let the man they blamed for their troubles—Harry Truman—take the beating for them. They would, they expected, hold enough strength in Congress to block the Republicans from major accomplishments and would thereafter (as they did to Hoover in 1932) blame the Republicans in public for not doing the things they prevented him from doing.

Four years ago President Truman was a lonely little figure pounding away at his "whistle-stop" campaign, largely deserted by the professionals in his party, battling furiously against apparently impossible odds.

It would be a mistake to believe, as many do, that this picture fired the imagination of the American people, and that they rallied to his support. He got a million and a half fewer votes than Roosevelt got in 1944, three and a third million less than in 1936—but it was enough, because of the collapse of the Republican campaign.

This time there has been a long and carefully planned program for perpetuating Democratic control over the national government.

Mr. Truman, after much shadow-boxing, stepped out of the race, thus automatically making him the scapegoat for the Democrats, and relieving the party of the onus for the mistakes and corruption during his administration.

Vast behind-the-scenes shuffling of political strength took place during the past year, the extent and direction of which

New Jersey Man Fatally Hurt When His Car Crashes Into Rear of Truck Tractor-Trailer On Lincoln Highway Early This Morning

A young man from Rocky Hill, N. J., was fatally injured this morning at 4.20 in the crash of his sedan and a truck tractor-trailer, on the Lincoln highway, two miles east of Phila. city line.

The victim: Donald M. Ward, 29, single. According to physicians at Nazareth Hospital, Phila., any one of Ward's multiple injuries (including internal and skull injuries) could have caused death. He was pronounced dead upon arrival at the hospital. Trevoise Heights Rescue Squad and a towing truck were able to free him from the wreckage 20 minutes after the crash.

According to Chief of Bensalem twp. police, George Rentz, the car operated by Ward crashed into the rear of the tractor-trailer driven by Joseph Coard, 40, of Richmond, Va. Both vehicles were proceeding west on the highway, when the crash occurred.

A technical charge of manslaughter was lodged against Coard, states Chief Rentz, pending outcome of the coroner's inquest.

Doylestown Only Co. Seat To Receive Safety Honor

DOYLESTOWN, Oct. 10 — Doylestown Borough, the only county seat in Pennsylvania that did not have a single highway automobile fatality in 1951, was presented with a framed award by the National Safety Council yesterday, by Anthony S. Beshore, representing Governor John S. Fine's Safety Committee.

Although Doylestown is at the crossroads of two of the state's busiest highways, Route 202 and Route 611, not a single death occurred within the borough limits in 1951, that was due to an auto accident.

The award was presented at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Doylestown, and accepted by Chief Burgess George C. Butler, for the borough.

The traffic control and general police work of the Borough of Doylestown was highly praised by the representative from Governor Fine's office.

The community in general was also praised for its outstanding cooperation with the local and State Police.

He traced step by step his early youth in Kansas, which fitted him for the grower of vegetables on a large scale.

He spoke of the size of the giant government in Washington and how the executive department is trying to dictate to Congress. "The incoming mail every day is terrific, he stated. Some letters embody legitimate subjects, while others are trivial and some come from cranks.

Find Man's Body Hanging From Tree Near Woods

Discovery Made at Morrisville; Police Endeavor to Make Identification

MORRISVILLE, Oct. 10 — An unidentified man was found hanging from a tree in a woods on South Delmoor avenue yesterday afternoon at about four o'clock. Zobto Ruzzi, Cleveland st., found the body as it hung suspended by a piece of clothes line from the limb of a tree. The knees were drawn up off the ground and beneath the feet were several tin cans which had been used, apparently, by the man to raise himself off the ground. They had then evidently been kicked away.

Ruzzi told police and Dr. William A. Goldfarb, of Bristol, deputy coroner of Bucks County, that when he walked through the woods Wednesday he saw a man at a distance, but thought that he was a watchman. Yesterday Ruzzi was walking near the same spot, again saw the man at what appeared to be the same location from where Ruzzi was standing. Ruzzi walked over and found the body suspended.

Girl is Identified As June Margerum, Of West Bristol

Arrived at Cousins' Monday; Regains Consciousness For Few Minutes

GIRL'S IDENTITY ESTABLISHED THRU STORY IN COURIER

It was the story carried in The Bristol Courier yesterday about a 'teen-age girl found unconscious in Bristol township which led to establishment of her identity as June Margerum, 18, West Bristol, recently of Phila.

A West Bristol boy who had seen June leave the home of cousins in West Bristol at eight o'clock yesterday morning, noted that the description of the girl and her clothing fitted June. He went at once to the home of June's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oechsle, 4th and Broadway, and showing the story to Mrs. Oechsle said, "I think it's June". Mrs. Oechsle "knew right away" was June, and a short time later she and her husband were at Bristol General Hospital to confer with physicians.

With identification established for a girl found unconscious at Newport road and Dixon avenue, West Bristol, yesterday, physicians at Bristol General Hospital are continuing efforts to determine what has caused her condition. The girl has been identified as June Margerum, 18, who arrived Monday evening from Philadelphia to reside with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oechsle, Fourth avenue at Broadway, West Bristol.

The girl, who remained unconscious until five o'clock this morning, was able in her few minutes of consciousness to tell physicians something of what happened yesterday morning. June recalls getting dressed to leave the Oechsle house to hunt a job. She says that as she walked along the highway everything "went black". After telling physicians of this experience, she again lapsed into a stuporous condition.

Interviewed at her home by a Bristol Courier reporter this morning, Mrs. Oechsle informed that June is one of 11 children of Mr.

Will Consider Opening of Pennel-Newton Road

Consideration will be given to the opening of the Pennel-Newton road, "if at all possible", according to E. J. Kinney of the State Highway Department district office, Ardmore.

According to Kinney, the department will try to open the road for the winter if the route proves to be passable, and if the opening does not interfere with the work of the contractor.

Presently traffic between Pennel and Langhorne, and Newtown, is not allowed use of the road and must detour around it.

An Eye to Safety

(By "The Stroller") Cowboy films on "TV" are enjoyed by young and old alike and to a greater or lesser degree they have a universal appeal.

Everyone thrills to the skill and speed with which the cowboys ride the hills and twirl their six-guns as they stalk their villainous prey. But some of the appeal is lost when they come out of the television screen and exchange their four-legged stallion for four-wheeled convertibles and stalk their quarry on Route 13 instead of "Dry Gulch Canyon."

The borough is fortunate. They, no doubt, still have their six-guns on the screen. In the outlying sections, however, these six-guns have been exchanged for 22's and shot guns which whizz merrily by the wash lines threatening to put holes where there aren't any buttons.

No one means to be vicious. We're just a little careless at times. And we mustn't be, because we're growing into one of the finest communities in the country. The eyes of America are ever on a booming area. When they look at us, let them see real progress in community safety as well as in industry.

Our borough and township police are doing a fine job and a tremendous one. Let's help them.

It's wonderful to live in the Bristol area. Let's live and . . . let live.

Langhorne Council In Routine Session Hears Numerous Reports

Discusses Curbing, Prowlers, Street Lights and Parking Area

By Staff Reporter

LANGHORNE, Oct. 10 — Curbing presently being installed in the borough was the main topic of discussion at the meeting of Langhorne borough council last night at town hall.

Council heard a report by Chief-of-Police William E. Arwine of prowlers in the area. Arwine was authorized to secure two men for deputization for Oct. 29 through Oct. 31 to prevent Halloween vandalism. Two potentially dangerous trees will be removed; street light poles will be painted; borough property to the rear of the post office will be filled in to correct a swampy situation, and provide a parking space at the rear of the post office; and the secretary was requested to advertise for bids for a new traffic light at Pine st. and Maple ave.

The complaints stem from the fact that sidewalks on opposite sides of the street are at different levels. Jennings gave the estimated cost of the unit as $3,073,912.

Ground-breaking for the hospital was set as Sunday, Nov. 2, 1952, by the directors. Jennings stated. The hospital will be located at the south west corner of Bath rd. and route 13, overlooking Silver Lake.

According to Jennings the directors are awaiting a letter of confirmation of the hospital's eligibility under the Hill-Burton Act before contracts are awarded. Certification was given Wednesday by the Department of Welfare for funds for the hospital under the act. These funds will pay 40% of the total cost of construction. One of the requirements of eligibility for the funds is that 60% of the total cost be raised locally.

Jennings explained that the cost of a 100-bed unit would have been $2,838,536, and for the difference in money that was involved the directors decided they would push for the 150-bed unit.

Contracts must be awarded by October 26th, Jennings explained. He added that a clerk for the hospital must be hired before that date and the board was desirous of securing a local person for the job. Jennings said that consideration was being given to a new fund drive to raise the additional money necessary but that such drive was not expected to get under way until after the first of the year.

DONKEY IN DISTRESS

It is a terrible thing to be in a sinking ship—or for that matter, to be in a ship you think is sinking, whether it is actually in danger or not.

As the campaign moves into its final stages, nothing is clearer than that a sort of hysteria has gripped the Democratic leadership.

The picture is vastly different from what it was four years ago. Then the Democrats had largely reconciled themselves to the thought of defeat. They were perfectly content to let the man they blamed for their troubles—Harry Truman—take the beating for them. They would, they expected, hold enough strength in Congress to block the Republicans from major accomplishments and would thereafter (as they did to Hoover in 1932) blame the Republicans in public for not doing the things they prevented him from doing.

Four years ago President Truman was a lonely little figure pounding away at his "whistle-stop" campaign, largely deserted by the professionals in his party, battling furiously against apparently impossible odds.

It would be a mistake to believe, as many do, that this picture fired the imagination of the American people, and that they rallied to his support. He got a million and a half fewer votes than Roosevelt got in 1944, three and a third million less than in 1936—but it was enough, because of the collapse of the Republican campaign.

This time there has been a long and carefully planned program for perpetuating Democratic control over the national government.

Mr. Truman, after much shadow-boxing, stepped out of the race, thus automatically making him the scapegoat for the Democrats, and relieving the party of the onus for the mistakes and corruption during his administration.

Vast behind-the-scenes shuffling of political strength took place during the past year, the extent and direction of which

New Jersey Man Fatally Hurt When His Car Crashes Into Rear of Truck Tractor-Trailer On Lincoln Highway Early This Morning

A young man from Rocky Hill, N. J., was fatally injured this morning at 4:20 in the crash of his sedan and a truck tractor-trailer, on the Lincoln highway, two miles east of Phila. city line.

The victim, Donald M. Ward, 29, single. According to physicians at Nazareth Hospital, Phila., any one of Ward's multiple injuries (including internal and skull injuries) could have caused death. He was pronounced dead upon arrival at the hospital. Trevoise Heights Rescue Squad and a towing truck were able to free him from the wreckage 20 minutes after the crash.

According to Chief of Bensalem twp. police, George Rentz, the car operated by Ward crashed into the rear of the tractor-trailer driven by Joseph Coard, 40, of Richmond, Va. Both vehicles were proceeding west on the highway, when the crash occurred.

A technical charge of manslaughter was lodged against Coard, states Chief Rentz, pending outcome of the coroner's inquest.

To Ask Bids for Building Extension to Pa. Turnpike

Investment Firm Turns Over Check for $65,000,000 Received from Bond Issue

By International News Service
HARRISBURG, Oct. 10 — (INS) — Bids for constructing the first section of the 33-mile Delaware River extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike will be received Oct. 30, the Turnpike Commission announced today.

Commission officials received the green light to proceed with building the extension when a Philadelphia investment firm today turned over to the PTC a $65,000,000 check from the sale of a PTC bond issue. Advertisements, the Commission said, will appear Oct. 10 calling for bids for building bridges, grading, drainage and paving of the first section of the Turnpike in Montgomery County.

The first link of the extension, the PTC said, will begin at a point near the Montgomery - Chester County line and extend eastward for about one and three-quarters of a mile.

Completion of the extension will bring the length of the Pennsylvania superhighway to a total of 360 miles of four-lane divided highway reaching across the state from the Ohio state line to the New Jersey border.

Doylestown Only Co. Seat To Receive Safety Honor

DOYLESTOWN, Oct. 10 — Doylestown Borough, the only county seat in Pennsylvania that did not have a single highway automobile fatality in 1951, was presented with a framed award by the National Safety Council yesterday, by Anthony S. Beshore, representing Governor John S. Fine's Safety Committee.

Although Doylestown is at the crossroads of two of the state's busiest highways, Route 202 and Route 611, not a single death occurred within the borough limits in 1951, that was due to an auto accident.

The award was presented at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Doylestown, and accepted by Chief Burgess George C. Butler, for the borough.

The traffic control and general police work of the Borough of Doylestown was highly praised by the representative from Governor Fine's office.

The community in general was also praised for its outstanding cooperation with the local and State Police.

Congressman King Speaks At Bristol Rotary Meeting

Karl King, Congressman of the 8th district, addressed the Bristol Rotary Club yesterday. He particularly stressed his wholehearted belief in the free enterprise system and free economy in this country, which acts as a regulator of prices. He traced step by step his early youth in Kansas, which fitted him for the grower of vegetables on a large scale.

He spoke of the size of the giant government in Washington and how the executive department is trying to dictate to Congress. The incoming mail every day is terrific, he stated. Some letters embody legitimate subjects, while others are trivial and some come from cranks.

As to the outlook for the coming election his is of the firm belief that the Republicans this year have the edge. High taxes affects everyone and becomes a tremendous burden. Even large segments of labor are affected, not to speak of people who live on a fixed income.

The Korean war deals a hard blow to about 2½ million people, whose sons, friends, or relatives are inveigled in this cauldron of slaughter.

In his closing statement he emphasized that he is working heart and soul for this preservation of our economy.

Speakers Stress Need For YMCA Extension Activities in Area

Express Need for Large Building and Other Needed Activities

By Staff Reporter

PENNSBURG, Oct. 10 — The extension of Y. M. C. A. activities to meet the needs of rapidly-industrializing Lower Bucks County was discussed at a meeting of "Y" officials, educators, business and industrial leaders and others active in community work last night at Pennsbury Inn.

W. Haines Kent, Penna. state Y.M.C.A. secretary, urged that the new Lower Bucks County Y.M.C.A. District operate as an independent unit, getting its leadership and funds from within the area.

"We visualize an incorporated, independent Y.M.C.A. here with outposts in different communities and with authority to give service all over Lower Bucks County," Kent said. He recommended using a large building as metropolitan center, with branches for activities.

Al Getchey, general supervisor of the training bureau of the Fairless U. S. Steel Works, acknowledged that the entry of his firm is bringing great changes into Bucks County, and urged the expansion of Y.M.C.A. activity to meet the coming needs. He said he was informed that two million people are expected to move here within the next two years, and 289 industries are looking for locations near the new steel plant. "Your

Discovery Made at Morrisville; Police Endeavor to Make Identification

MORRISVILLE, Oct. 10 — An unidentified man was found hanging from a tree in a woods on South Delmoor avenue yesterday afternoon at about four o'clock. Zobto Ruzzi, Cleveland st., found the body as it hung suspended by a piece of clothes line from the limb of a tree. The knees were drawn up off the ground and beneath the feet were several tin cans which had been used, apparently, by the man to raise himself off the ground. They had then evidently been kicked away.

Ruzzi told police and Dr. William A. Goldfarb, of Bristol, deputy coroner of Bucks County, that when he walked through the woods Wednesday he saw a man at a distance, but thought that he was a watchman. Yesterday Ruzzi in walking near the same spot, again saw the man at what appeared to be the same location from where Ruzzi was standing. Ruzzi walked over and found the body suspended.

The body is that of a man about five feet and two inches tall, weigh-

Girl is Identified As June Margerum, Of West Bristol

Arrived at Cousins' Monday; Regains Consciousness For Few Minutes

It was the story carried in The Bristol Courier yesterday about a "teen-age girl found unconscious in Bristol township which led to establishment of her identity as June Margerum, 18, West Bristol, recently of Phila.

A West Bristol boy who had seen June leave the home of cousins in West Bristol at eight o'clock yesterday morning, noted that the description of the girl and her clothing fitted June. He went at once to the home of June's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oechsle, 4th and Broadway, and showing the story to Mrs. Oechsle said, "I think it's June". Mrs. Oechsle "knew right away it was June", and a short time later she and her husband were at Bristol General Hospital to confer with physicians.

With identification established for a girl found unconscious at Newport road and Dixon avenue, West Bristol, yesterday, physicians at Bristol General Hospital are continuing efforts to determine what has caused her condition. The girl has been identified as June Margerum, 18, who arrived Monday evening from Philadelphia to reside with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oechsle, Fourth avenue at Broadway, West Bristol.

The girl, who remained unconscious until five o'clock this morning, was able in her few minutes of consciousness to tell physicians something of what happened yesterday morning. June recalls getting dressed to leave the Oechsle house to walk a job. She says that as she walked along the highway everything "went black". After telling physicians of this experience, she again lapsed into a stuporous condition.

Interviewed at her home by a Bristol Courier reporter this morning, Mrs. Oechsle informed that June is one of 11 children of Mr.

Will Consider Opening of Pennel-Newton Road

Consideration will be given to the opening of the Pennel-Newton road, "if at all possible", according to E. J. Kinney of the State Highway Department district office, Ardmore.

According to Kinney, the department will try to open the road for the winter if the route proves to be passable, and if the opening does not interfere with the work of the contractor.

Presently traffic between Pennel and Langhorne, and Newtown, is not allowed use of the road and must detour around it.

An Eye to Safety

(By "The Stroller")
Cowboy films on "TV" are enjoyed by young and old alike and to a greater or lesser degree they have a universal appeal. Everyone thrills to the skill and speed with which the cowboys ride the hills and twirl their six-guns as they stalk their villainous prey. But some of the appeal is lost when they come out of the television screen and exchange their four-legged stallion for four-wheeled convertibles and stalk their quarry on Route 13 instead of "Dry Gulch Canyon."

The borough is fortunate. They, no doubt, still have their six-guns on the screen. In the outlying sections, however, these six-guns have been exchanged for 22's and shot guns which whizz merrily by the wash lines threatening to put holes where there aren't any buttons.

No one means to be vicious. We're just a little careless at times. And we mustn't be, because we're growing into one of the finest communities in the country. The eyes of America are ever on a booming area. When they look at us, let them see real progress in community safety as well as in industry.

Our borough and township police are doing a fine job and a tremendous one. Let's help them. It's wonderful to live in the Bristol area. Let's live and . . . let live.

LOVE'S LABORS LOST

Now that a method has been discovered to take the "cream" out of ice cream and substitute vegetable oil, look what they're doing for those who feel they need moonlight as part of their nightly sustenance.
A British scientist says synthetic moonlight can be achieved by the simple process of sending up a rocket containing—in addition to the propellant charge, of course—a few ounces of sodium. A timing device releases the powder when the rocket has attained an altitude of 40 miles. The result would be luminosity much like the moon's yellowish glow.
Presumably this scheme would be used on clear nights when the moon is shadowed. It is difficult to see that it would do much good on nights with a heavy overcast, or when there's rain—although they capitalize on "liquid sunshine" in Hawaii. Drive-in theaters might advertise "moonlight added," the way manufacturers are sticking vitamins into just about everything one eats.
In its larger aspects, though, the scheme would seem to have an appeal to a very small minority. Husbands and wives with years of marital bliss behind them can take the dark periods of the month along with the moonlit. Besides, who can think of a word for rocket that rhymes with "spoon" or "moon"?

Chemicals in the human body now are worth $5 at drug store prices. Fellow who claims he feels like 30 cents is $4.70 off the market.

Russian history has been bloody since the year 1,000 A. D. And probably before that the boys weren't too gentle if the facts were known.

If price controls return, perhaps the Washington boys can think of initials other than OPA, which were twisted into Oh, Pee-ew by the scoffers.

There is enough nitrogen in the atmosphere to last 930,000,000 years, scientists say. At least there is something we can breathe easy about.

When candidates brag about the great, unfinished task, they mean they are willing to stay on the payroll.

NEWS OF SCHOOLS IN AREA--

All public, private and parochial schools in the Bristol area are invited to send news items for publication in this column which appears frequently.

Bristol Township Elementary Schools

Newcomers to Edgely Intermediate include John and Suzanne Magee and Donald Griffin from Philadelphia, Dorothy Robinson from Baltimore, Maryland and John Wilmot from Morrisville. John Wilmot has just become the proud owner of a pony. In response to a recent television request for suitable names for a pony, John entered the name "Lightning". John's suggested name was accepted as the winner and as the prize he won the pony itself. John has been the envy of all of the children of Edgely Intermediate and according to John he is going to ride the pony, just as soon as he catches it.

MAPLE SHADE

Maple Shade welcomes three new teachers to its faculty:

Mrs. Mary Smith, a graduate of Penn State, is teaching a combined first and third grade.

Mrs. Smith's husband, Mr. Richard G. Smith, is one of the Industrial Arts teachers at Delhaas High School.

They are the parents of an eight months old adopted son of whom they are justly proud.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are natives of Pittsburgh and Erie, Pennsylvania.

Miss Betty Ann Bacon, whose home is in Northeast Philadelphia and who is a graduate of West Chester State Teachers College, is teaching third grade at Maple Shade.

Miss Bacon while at college was active in Student Christian Association, Serpentine, college yearbook, and Elementary Professional Club. She is also a member of a local church choir and several social clubs.

Mr. Herman Frick, a graduate of East Stroudsburg State Teachers College is teaching a sixth grade in Maple Shade School.

Mr. Frick whose home is in Lebanon, Pennsylvania, saw military service in the 23rd Infantry Regiment, 2nd Division, European Theatre. While at college he was active in all sports.

COMMUNITY

September the fifteenth came and school began for the children. October comes and school begins for the teachers in Bristol Township Schools. An extension course from Pennsylvania State College is being offered in the Bristol High School. It will be held in the evenings for the working teachers. It is called "Modern Tendencies in Educational Methods" and will include professional discussions and problems of the modern classroom teacher. Miss Joan Breuer and Miss Dorothy Reichert from Community School will attend this class.

Neshaminy District

LANGHORNE, Oct. 9 — "Tag Days" for Neshaminy high school band were Oct. 4th, 5th, and 6th. Tags were sold by band members on their own time. The money collected is to be used for a new set of drums, flags, and to pay for the band banquet. The proceeds from the event will also help towards getting jackets and hats for the color guards: Helen Kaytor, "Bea" Felton, Janet VanHee, Diane Mather, Elizabeth Stradling, Lorraine Keen, Marie Lopriore, Josi Dalesandro, Rosalie Babesh, and Lois Dilorio. This event sponsored by the Band Boosters was held in Langhorne, Hulmeville, Penndel, Feasterville, and Middletown twp. Neshaminy's hockey team has just obtained red corduroy jackets trimmed in blue for the girls.

Individual pictures of all the students were taken last week. These pictures are taken for the students' and school's benefit.

Officers for the coming year were elected at the second meeting of the 1952-53 student council. They are: vice president, Roy Rumsey; secretary, Ferné Loux; and treasurer Edward Kornowski. An assembly was held on Friday the 3rd of October to install these officers. A report on stamp day was given by Patricia Bond. This will go into effect in the near future. Again the matter of hall monitors was discussed. It was also suggested that a white line down the center of the hall to help the students stay on the right side would relieve some congestion. Monitors will also be on duty in the halls during the changing of classes. Any student disobeying these monitors will report to detention. Wayne Kramer is making a list of monitors.

Baby sitters are available to parents wishing to attend P. T. A. meetings but are unable to leave small children at home. These girls from grades nine to 12 are volunteering services on the second Tuesday of each month. The services of these girls can be obtained by calling Mrs. Kurt Klockenthoer. All girls must have parents permission and in outlying districts two girls will be sent. As these services are voluntary no payment is necessary but contributions will be put into the sitters' class treasury.

no one can tell. Its purpose was simple enough to prevent the Korean debacle being made a political issue, but this it did not succeed in doing.

As definitely as the Kremlin is changing the minds of its subjects on ideological matters, the concepts of the New Deal were overhauled and revised to bring the party back to the "middle of the road" from the socialistically far Left to which Harry Truman had dragged it.

The theory that the Taft-Hartley Law might not be all bad, and that even if it was repealed much of its provisions might be re-enacted—that theory slipped into Democratic concepts.

Likewise with the FEPC issue—die-hards from the North were persuaded, no doubt very reluctantly, to yield some of the Federal teeth in favor of a semblance of state's rights.

Armed with statistics which probably were "loaded" the Democrats threw away controls on practically all fronts—credit buying, retail prices, priorities, building materials, etc., etc.

In the background the most fantastic total of government money ever amassed for a political campaign—probably substantially more than a hundred billion dollars—was lined up where the President and his political advisers could have it expended or committed to do them the most good during the campaign.

The labor bosses were outmaneuvered and put in the position where they had to come back hat-in-hand and climb aboard the Democratic caravan, swallowing a great many deviations from their own political concepts.

Mr. Truman played a master game of political poker in the Democratic National Convention—eliminating all opponents, Barkley, Kefauver, Russell and Harriman, with speed and dispatch, if not always with regard for their feelings.

Three hours after he reached Chicago it was "in the bag" for the reluctant Mr. Stevenson and for the "compromise" running mate who was to hold the South in line—Senator Sparkman.

The convention played tag with the Southern insurgents, first baiting them to a frenzy, and then luring them docilely back into line. The long-predicted "Southern Revolt" collapsed, with nothing left but fragments.

And yet today the well-laid plans are creaking. Governor Stevenson already has been forced to shift his views on problem after problem, trying to get in more favorable position. The President is as noisy as in 1948, but the zing is gone. Sparkman has been busiest trying to explain why he is willing to reveal his own tax history, but not that of his wife.

The Democrats are becoming glassy-eyed and frantic. No one who reads the signs can doubt that they are badly frightened. The heat is on as never before.

Lions Club presented merchandise certificate awards to the following:

Senior High School: First prize, Louise Davis, $15; Second prize, Donald Schelley $10.

Junior High School: First prize, John Lewis and Gloria Field $8 each; Second prize, Carol Tunis and Dorothy Ringgold $5 each.

Elementary Grades: First prize, Leonard Puccio $4; Second prize, Billie Joyce Lewis $2.

The judges in this contest were Mrs. Janet Giffre, Art Instructor of the Delhaas School System, Mr. Ken Anderson of Ken-Ray Signs, and Mr. William Slater of Slater Signs.

ing 160 to 175 pounds and between 50 and 60 years of age. He wore a hat purchased in a Trenton store, green and white block heavy woolen shirt, gray trousers and high shoes.

In the clothing there were pieces of a broken mirror, a five cent coin, cigar butts and matches. There were no evidence of violence.

In the opinion of Dr. Goldfarb the man had been dead four to six hours. The body was removed to the funeral home of J. Allen Hooper.

Police officers, Joseph Digiorio and Clifton Morris along with State Police are investigating.

A number of P. R. R. foremen and employees have viewed the body in an effort to fix identity.

Some think the body is that of a man from Trenton who often drove a horse drawn vehicle gathering junk.

homes are going to be disrupted as our work was disrupted," Getchey said.

Some Y.M.C.A. services that will be needed in Lower Bucks County, Getchey said, are a camp for youngsters and adults, a "home away from home" for young men who come to work here, a large Y.M.C.A. building, a seamen's home and a railroad Y.M.C.A. "It's your job and my job to feel the needs as they develop," he said. "We'll need board members, lay members and leaders."

Kent told the group of the achievements of Y.M.C.A. organizations since they were started in 1844. He said the Y.M.C.A. pioneered in many features of present day life, including innovation of basketball and volleyball, boys' work, camping, adult education, father-and-son activities, organized finance drives, help to servicemen and industrial management work.

In Lower Bucks County, Kent said, "It is our obligation to see that the communities are ideal. The Y.M.C.A. is ideally equipped to serve youth." He said Lower Bucks district was authorized last May 12, when O. E. Norbeck was made executive secretary. An independent unit here was authorized by the state organization July 28, he said. "In the last year the Y.M.C.A. has been one of the major factors in the unity developing in this territory."

Asked what should be the next step in promoting an active Y.M.C.A. here, Kent urged the formation of a Lower Bucks County District Committee, to find the kind of services that will be needed. He said there should be a provisional managing body, with lay leadership.

Congressman Karl C. King, a guest at the meeting, said, "I think Lower Bucks County needs an effective unit of the Y.M.C.A. As we grow into a great city, I shall be glad to see the Y.M.C.A. grow and cooperate with it."

and Mrs. Alfred Margerum. She claims that Mr. and Mrs. Margerum are separated. "June's mother couldn't keep the family on what relief money she got," continued Mrs. Oechsle. "June lived with some social workers, and her older sister lived at a Salvation Army captain's home. The other children are in a home in Philadelphia. June called it 'The Southern Home'." (Editor's note: A Southern Home is listed at Broad and Morris sts., Phila.)

Continuing Mrs. Oechsle said: "The social workers planned to put June in a foster home, and she didn't want to go with strangers. So the social workers brought her here on Monday night. They told me June had just had a physical examination, and was in good health" . . . "June had lived with us most of last winter. She had tried to get a job then, but didn't succeed. After that she went to Phila. and lived with her mother for a time. But she hadn't seen her mother for about seven months".

Mrs. Oechsle did not know the present address of June's mother. "She didn't talk much about the family," she added.

Mrs. Oechsle says that June seemed satisfied here last winter, and again this week. When asked if June appeared upset about conditions in general Mrs. Oechsle said the girl didn't talk much about her problems. "She may have kept it all inside" she volunteered. She added that the girl during the past few days had helped with the housework, and had watched television programs. "Then she decided she would hunt for a job, and she left about eight yesterday morning to walk to Bristol". It was added that when June did not return during the day, Mrs. Oechsle assumed June had found employment and started to work at once. "When she hadn't arrived at five o'clock last evening when my husband came home I mentioned it to him. He decided we should wait until about six in case she was working until near that hour. Then a neighbor boy (whom Mrs. Oechsle mentioned is a member of the Hughes family) came about six o'clock to tell me of the story in The Bristol Courier about a girl found unconscious. He had seen June go out in the morning and knew that the description fitted her. He showed me the paper and I knew at once it was June."

Mrs. Oechsle telephoned Bristol township police, who took her and her husband to the hospital to establish identity of the girl.

At Bristol General Hospital physicians are still attempting to learn what has caused June's condition. They feel that "mental strain" might be blamed for her prolonged unconscious period.

Bucks County Rescue Squad ambulance was used to remove the girl to the hospital.

Lions Club. A committee of the club composed of S. Joseph Aita, 2d and Walter Rosser, First Vice President of the Bristol Lions Club and Assistant Principal of the Bristol High School arranged a program in conjunction with Fire Prevention Week, October 5 to 11, in cooperation with the Bristol Fire Department and the Safety Department of the Rohm & Haas Company, Bristol Plant.

S. Joseph Aita 2d, informed the Lions assembled that the program sponsored by the Bristol Lions Club was basically for the purpose of focusing public attention on the needless loss of life and destruction of property by fire and pointed out that the objective of fire prevention consciousness should not only be attained during fire prevention week, but should be maintained by everyone everyday in the year. He praised Mr. Cowan for the work he had done during the past week, a commendable job in addressing the children of the schools in the borough. Chief Hagerman, Fire Chief of the Borough of Bristol was introduced and complimented for the excellent work he is doing in fire prevention and fire protection.

Mr. DeWitte, was introduced by Mr. Aita, as a most capable man with whom he had been associated for many years, a man to whom fire prevention is not only a vocation but an avocation and who is most thoroughly informed on the subject of Fire Prevention and Fire Protection.

Mr. DeWitte gave a most interesting and informative talk on fire safety in the home, in public places and in industry. He gave many gems to be remembered in the prevention of loss of life and destruction of property by fire.

Donkey in Distress

no one can tell. Its purpose was simple enough to prevent the Korean debacle being made a political issue, but this it did not succeed in doing.

As definitely as the Kremlin is changing the minds of its subjects on ideological matters, the concepts of the New Deal were overhauled and revised to bring the party back to the "middle of the road" from the socialistically far Left to which Harry Truman had dragged it.

The theory that the Taft-Hartley Law might not be all bad, and that even if it was repealed much of its provisions might be re-enacted—that theory slipped into Democratic concepts.

Likewise with the FEPC issue—die-hards from the North were persuaded, no doubt very reluctantly, to yield some of the Federal teeth in favor of a semblance of state's rights.

Armed with statistics which probably were "loaded" the Democrats threw away controls on practically all fronts—credit baying, retail prices, priorities, building materials, etc., etc.

In the background the most fantastic total of government money ever amassed for a political campaign—probably substantially more than a hundred billion dollars—was lined up where the President and his political advisers could have it expended or committed to do them the most good during the campaign.

The labor bosses were outmaneuvered and put in the position where they had to come back hat-in-hand and climb aboard the Democratic caravan, swallowing a great many deviations from their own political concepts.

Mr. Truman played a master game of political poker in the Democratic National Convention—eliminating all opponents, Farley, Kefauver, Russell and Harriman, with speed and dispatch, if not always with regard for their feelings.

Three hours after he reached Chicago it was "in the bag" for the reluctant Mr. Stevenson and for the "compromise" running mate who was to hold the South in line—Senator Sparkman.

The convention played tag with the Southern insurgents, first baiting them to a frenzy, and then luring them docilely back into line. The long-predicted "Southern Revolt" collapsed, with nothing left but fragments.

And yet today the well-laid plans are creaking. Governor Stevenson already has been forced to shift his views on problem after problem, trying to get in more favorable position. The President is as noisy as in 1948, but the zing is gone. Sparkman has been busiest trying to explain why he is willing to reveal his own tax history, but not that of his wife.

The Democrats are becoming glassy-eyed and frantic. No one who reads the signs can doubt that they are badly frightened. The heat is on as never before.

ing 160 to 175 pounds and between 50 and 60 years of age. He wore a hat purchased in a Trenton store, green and white block heavy woolen shirt, gray trousers and high shoes.

In the clothing there were pieces of a broken mirror, a five cent coin, cigar butts and matches. There were no evidence of violence.

In the opinion of Dr. Goldfarb the man had been dead four to six hours. The body was removed to the funeral home of J. Allen Hooper.

Police officers, Joseph Digiorio and Clifton Morris along with State Police are investigating.

A number of P. R. R. foremen and employees have viewed the body in an effort to fix identity.

Some think the body is that of a man from Trenton who often drove a horse drawn vehicle gathering junk.

homes are going to be disrupted as our work was disrupted," Getchey said.

Some Y.M.C.A. services that will be needed in Lower Bucks County, Getchey said, are a camp for youngsters and adults, a "home away from home" for young men who come to work here, a large Y.M.C.A. building, a seamen's home and a railroad Y.M.C.A. "It's your job and my job to feel the needs as they develop," he said. "We'll need board members, lay members and leaders."

Kent told the group of the

Today's Quiet Moment

The Rev. Donald E. May, Pastor Eddington Presbyterian Church

A War To Be Waged

Read Ephesians 6:10-20.

There is for us as Christians a war to be waged. The forces that oppose us are those of evil which are under the command of the Devil. Our Commander-in-Chief, Jesus Christ the Lord, bids us put on the whole armor that is His in order that we may win: the belt of truth, the breastplate of righteousness, the shoes of peace, the helmet of salvation. He bids us take the shield of faith and the sword of the Spirit which is the Word of God, and pray.

If God's battles had been completely won in the past, we would not have had to engage in such wars as World War I, World War II, or the Korean War. Let us not only wage God's War to eliminate national wars, but also to enthronate righteousness in people's hearts to bring peace and prosperity.

don. The wedding is expected to take place Oct. 23rd.

Have Plentiful Supply of School Savings Stamps

Bristol post office now has a plentiful supply of school savings stamps and albums ready for the new school season. Postmaster Lawrence M. Mulligan announced today. "We have received shipments of both stamps and albums during the summer recess and are fully prepared to continue serving all of our schools," he added.

Mr. Mulligan, who had served as acting postmaster since March, 1951, and who was named postmaster effective the end of Sept., also stated: "There is every reason to anticipate a far heavier demand for savings stamps this year than at any time during the peace-time years. The school savings campaign last fall which proved such an outstanding success, created keen interest in the program on the part of teachers and students. The drive, which added 5,815 new school savings programs throughout the country, will be continued during the first semester of this school year. It is expected that nearly five million students will be in stamp duty schools by the end of this calendar year."

"It is hard to visualize the great benefit this one program will have for our country with five million children saving nickels and dimes and building the habit of thrift. School savings have been on the uptrend the past three years," he continued. "Stamp sales in the nation's schools increased from $10 million, 800 thousand in 1950 to $14 million in the 1951-52 school year."

Mr. Mulligan also announced that the new improved Series E bonds are now available. In describing the new bond he said: "It is now better than ever. Your return on this bond is three percent, compounded semi-annually, if held to maturity. It also provides higher cash values in the earlier years. Proof of its popularity is the cash value of E bonds now outstanding has mounted to $34.9 billion, the highest ever attained."

Lakeside Section Soon Will Be Illuminated

Lamp-Posts Delivered; New Parking Lot Graded At Administration Bldg.

By Staff Reporter
LEVITTOWN, Oct. 10 — A stranger driving through the Lakeside section might get the impression that lampposts have fallen down all over the place.

The light posts did not fall down, of course, but have been delivered to the curbs, and will soon be up, illuminating Lakeside's streets.

Be careful entering Levittown from Bristol Pike on Tullytown-Oxford Valley road. It is in the process of widening and paving, but at present it is a little hazardous when you detour off the hard surface into a short stretch of soft dirt.

Have you noticed those attractive evergreen patches on the corner lots in Stonybrook? They're coming in Lakeside, too.

The new parking lot for the Administration Building is already graded, graveled and in use.

NEWPORTVILLE

Class No. 9 Newportville Sunday School will sponsor a rummage sale Oct. 16th, one p. m. to 5 p. m. and Oct. 17th, 10 a. m. to five p. m. Anyone having any articles to donate may contact any member of the class.

The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary will be held in Newport Fire Co. No. 1, Bensalem Twp., Monday at eight p. m.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Everett Jr., were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wright, Philadelphia.

A Series of Articles Introducing the New Residents of Levittown to The Community.

By Staff Reporter
LEVITTOWN, Oct. 10 — This is the second Levittown that Frank Connolly, of 19 Locust Lane, is helping to build. As hardware foreman for the North Shore Supply Co. he's in charge of the fixtures that go into each of the 16,000 houses here. With the same supply firm he was active in the construction of Levittown, Long Island.

Mr. Connolly and his wife, Estelle, are both natives of Long Island; he was born in Glen Cove and she in Bayville. They made their home in Bayville before moving here Sept. 29.

Mrs. Connolly was deputy village clerk of Bayville. Frank, Jr., who is 11 years old, is in the seventh grade at Pennsylvania High School. His sister, Ann, is three.

The Connollys have a unique dog, Curly, who is a cross breed between a French poodle and a cocker spaniel. Curly has the shape and the ears of a cocker, but her long, black curly hair comes from her poodle ancestry.

Stamp collecting, fishing and boating are pastimes which the Connollys enjoy doing together.

LEVITTOWN, Oct. 10 — When Donald Carlson, of 11 Locust lane, pilots his private airplane, he often takes along the whole family and also Patsy, a black cocker spaniel who is 12 years old.

Patsy seems to like the ride, according to Mrs. Carlson. The sound of the plane's engine during the take-off used to frighten the dog, but now she's becoming deaf and is not disturbed by the noise. Mrs. Carlson also enjoys flying. So does the Carlson's four-year-old daughter, Donna.

The Carlsons moved here September 13, but haven't yet moved the airplane here. It's still at Moorestown, N. J., where they lived three months while awaiting their Levittown home. The craft is a Sky-ranger which Mr. Carlson recently purchased. Before that he flew a Stinson.

Mr. Carlson, a tool designer for the Power Generator, of Trenton, worked 10 years at Army Installations in Maryland, the Aberdeen Proving Grounds and the Edgewood Chemical Center. He was employed by the Glenn Martin Co. of Baltimore, when he met his wife, Edith. She is a native of Lancaster, where she worked for the Hamilton Watch Co.

Many nice gifts were received and refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. Russell Force, Mrs. Edward Hetherington, Mrs. Sherman Bailey, Mrs. Michael Petrick, Jr., Mrs. William Clardy, Mrs. George Clardy, Mrs. Maurice Venere, Mrs. Nicholas Tranatti, Mrs. John Keen, Mrs. John Paulhamus, Mrs. Clifford Hagerman, Sr., Mrs. Joseph McCue, Mrs. Rose Montevino, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Scruby, of Bristol. Also attending from Trenton were: Mr. and Mrs. George Stout, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Stout, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. James Tuzzolo, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cook and Mrs. James Street.

The Rev. Donald E. May, Pastor Eddington Presbyterian Church

A War To Be Waged

Read Ephesians 6:10-20

There is for us as Christians a war to be waged. The forces that oppose us are those of evil which are under the command of the Devil. Our Commander-in-Chief, Jesus Christ the Lord, bids us put on the whole armor that is His in order that we may win: the belt of truth, the breastplate of righteousness, the shoes of peace, the helmet of the Word of God, and the sword of the Spirit which is the Word of God, and pray.

If God's battles had been completely won in the past, we would not have had to engage in such wars as World War I, World War II, or the Korean War. Let us not only wage God's War to eliminate national wars, but also to enthrone righteousness in people's hearts to bring peace and prosperity.

The wedding is expected to take place Oct. 23rd.

The 5th annual reunion of descendants of Laura and Charles Johnson was held on Sept. 28th at Bowman's Hill with 36 attending.

The afternoon was enjoyed playing football, a "doggie" roast formed the evening pleasure. At the business meeting, officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows:

President, Mrs. Marion Shores; Edgely; vice president, William Doan, Bristol; secretary, Mrs. Donald E. Worrell, Fallington; treasurer, Mrs. Delbert Wade, Newportville.

Jeffrey Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Palmer, Mansion st., was honored at a dinner on Wednesday in celebration of his fourth birthday anniversary. Decorations were in pink and white. Jeffrey received gifts.

A meeting of St. Ann's A. A. Ladies' Auxiliary was held in the club house Tuesday evening. The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Lucy Ciambella, 25 attending. The Auxiliary will sponsor a duncare party Nov. 5th. There will be square-dancing. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments served. Mrs. Lee Conti will be chairman of the affair. Members of St. Ann's Auxiliary and the Fifth Ward Sporting Club Auxiliary are making plans to hold a joint Christmas party. The date and place will be announced later. Miss Ciambella will be chairman of a pie and cake sale to be held in November. Spaghetti sauce will be one of the featured items. Two new members were accepted, namely, Mrs. Phyllis Lanieri, and Mrs. Francis Kelso. The next meeting will be Oct. 21st. Refreshments will be served by Miss Rachel DeVita, Miss Nella Cauti, and Mrs. Vito Marseggia.

Have Plentiful Supply of School Savings Stamps

Bristol post office now has a plentiful supply of school savings stamps and albums ready for the new school season. Postmaster Lawrence M. Mulligan announced today. "We have received shipments of both stamps and albums during the summer recess and are fully prepared to continue serving all of our schools," he added.

Mr. Mulligan, who had served as acting postmaster since March, 1951, and who was named postmaster effective the end of Sept., also stated: "There is every reason to anticipate a far heavier demand for savings stamps this year than at any time during the peace-time years. The school savings campaign last fall which proved such an outstanding success, created keen interest in the program on the part of teachers and students. The drive, which added 5,815 new school savings programs throughout the country, will be continued during the first semester of this school year. It is expected that nearly five million students will be in stamp duty schools by the end of this calendar year.

"It is hard to visualize the great benefit this one program will have for our country with five million children saving nickels and dimes and building the habit of thrift. School savings have been on the upswing the past three years," he continued. "Stamp sales in the nation's schools increased from $10 million, $90 thousand in 1950 to $14 million in the 1951-52 school year."

Mr. Mulligan also announced that the new improved Series E bonds are now available. In describing the new bond he said: "It is now better than ever. Your return on this bond is three percent, compounded semi-annually, if held to maturity. It also provides higher cash values in the earlier years. Proof of its popularity is the cash value of E bonds now outstanding has mounted to $34.9 billion, the highest ever attained."

Reports on small game are good this year. I have talked to a number of sportsmen who have been in the fields this year and they say they have seen more game this year than they saw in the last three or four. This doesn't necessarily mean there is more game than there was before. It could be that the game is chased into a smaller hunting area. Most of the hunting grounds are being built up so what little ground is left for hunting should have game on it.
